Tand-TNS011 - 7Days/6Nights Climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, Marangu Route

This is definitely the easiest and probably the most popular route for climbing Mount Kilimanjaro. It's often called the Coca Cola Route because this is the only one where climbers can buy soft drinks and snacks at each stop on the way up. For what it's worth, this route is also considered to be a bit of a joke by serious climbers, and in fact many of the more experienced operators don't run trips up Marangu because it's the least spectacular in scenery and it seems to attract the most people who aren't really committed to doing it properly

Day 1:

Pick up from Arusha town or Kilimanjaro International Airport and transfer to Moshi town, which is commonly known as the gateway to Mount Kilimanjaro at a Base Hotel in Moshi

Day 2:

After breakfast, you will have a short briefing on the climb. Depart to Marangu gate (45 minutes drive from Moshi to Marangu gate). Upon registering the authorities, officially start a four hour climb to the Mandara encampment (2,750m). Spend the night at Mandara Hut, an attractive collection of buildings. The huts have a bathroom with running water.

Day 3:

Ascent through the forest for a short time, before reaching the heather and moorland zone at roughly 3,000M (approximately a six-hour walk). Enjoy stunning views of the mountain peaks at this attitude. SPend the night at Horombo Hut (3,700M), which lies in a valley surrounded by giant lobelia and groundsel, flora which are charecterstic of this semi-alpine zone.

Day 4

This day continue with the trek past the final watering point, and ascend onto the saddle of Kilimanjaro, between the peaks of Kibo and Mawenzi. The vegetation thins out as you enter the desert-like alpine zone (approximately 4,000m) and, once you cross the saddle, kibo peak comes into view. The saddle is an alpine desert that resembles a lunar landscape. Be careful to notice signs of altitude sickness. This seven-hour walk will be taken at a slow pace. You will spend the night at Kibo Hut (4,703m), a comfortable stone construction. This semi-desert zone receives an annual rainfall of under 250mm; the ground often freezes at night, but ground temperatures soar to above 30 degrees Celsius by day. Few plants other than lichens and grasses survive in these conditions.

Day 5:

Shortly after midnight, you will commence the climb to the summit of Kilimanjaro, since it is easier to climb the scree slope to Gillman's point (5,861m) on crater rim when it is frozen and an early start for the six-hour hike improves your chances of reaching the summit in time for sunrise. From Gilman's Point, it is a further two-hour round trip along the crater's edge to Uhuru peak, the highest point in Africa. From the summit, it is downhill all the way to Horombo Hut where you will spend your last night on the mountain

Day 6:

Today's descent continues past the Mandara encampment to the bottom of the mountain, where each hiker will receive a well-earned certificate. From, here you will be transferred to the base hotel in Moshi for dinner and overnight.

Day 7:

After breakfast, transfer back to Arusha or Kilimanjaro International Airport.

Tand-TNS014 - 8Days/7Nights Climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, Machame Route

MACHAME ROUTE

This is probably the most beautiful route up Kilimanjaro. The accommodation on the way up and down is strictly camping (mobile tents) only. This trek is strenuous and may be better suited to more adventurous hikers.

Day 1: ARUSHA -MOSHI

Pick up from Arusha town or Kilimanjaro International Airport and transfer to Moshi town, which is commonly known as the gateway to Mount Kilimanjaro. Halfboard accommodation at a Base Hotel in Moshi.

Day 2: MOSHI -MACHAME

Transfer to Machame Gate and begin ascent of Mt. Kilimanjaro via Machame Route. Today you will be transferred to the Machame Gate to begin your climb. Depending on the weather this can be a moderate to very demanding day as the trek winds through a beautifully lush rain forest. Overnight in mountain tents at Machame (3000m).

Day 3: MACHAME -SHIRA

A full day as you start early, leaving the forest behind the climb a steep ridge for 3-4 hours. The path then drops into a gorgeous river gorge before you climb more gently up onto the moorland of the Shira Plateau. The Shira Plateau is all that remains of an older volcano that was engulfed when the much larger Kili formed. On clear days the views are absolutely breath taking. A seemingly endless expanse of multi-colored heath to the gargantuan rim at the end of the plateau where billows of clouds melt down onto the plateau floor. Overnight camping in the mountain tents at Shira (3840M).

Day 4: SHIRA -BARRANCO

Today's 5-6 hours walk across the plateau makes little net elevation, although there are ups and downs throughout the day. We'll enjoy sightings of the typical Kilimanjaro mountain vegetation and rewarding views of the spectacular Barranco valley. Overnight camping in mountain tents at Barranco (3950M).

Day 5: BARRANCO -BARAFU

The standard day includes about 6-8 hours of trekking, up the Barranco wall, then across scree and ridges to the Karanga valley (4100M) for lunch, before continuing up to Barafu Camp at 4600M. Overnight camping in mountain tents at Barafu.

Day 6: BARAFU -UHURU

You will rise around 2330hrs and after some tea and biscuits you will shuffle off into the night. You will head in a northwesterly direction and ascend through heavy scree towards Stella point on the crater rim. This 8-hour walk to Stella point is for many climbers mentally and physically, the most challenging on the route. At Stella point (5685M) you will stop for a short rest and will be rewarded with the most magnificent sunrise you are ever likely to see (weather permitting). From Stella Point you will encounter snow all the way on your 2-hour ascent to Uhuru Peak (5896M). Despite the actual distance of the trek not being too far the progress is slow-there is less than half the oxygen than at the sea-level! Uhuru Peak provides a unique reward and usually a plethora of emotions. If your progress has been good you can watch the sunrise from the rooftop of Africa! Start to descend shortly after the sunrise. Take a brief stop at Barafu Camp and then continue with the descend all the way down to Mweka Camp at 3100M. Overnight at Mweka Camp.

Day 7: UHURU -MOSHI

After breakfast descend through the lower health section that quickly turns into rainforest. Your time on Kilimanjaro ends at Kibololoni Gate where you will be met and transferred back to a Base hotel in Moshi for dinner and overnight.

The Game Reserve is Africa's largest protected area uninhabited by man, where Tanzania's greatest population of elephants wander in an area bigger than Switzerland! The Selous is considered important enough to be World Heritage Site, in which the lucky few can experience a safari in absolutely wild and unspoiled bush.

After breakfast, accompany an armed ranger on a walking Safari in the Reserve. The Sights and sounds (and smells) of a walking Safari are a special treat that will live long in your memory. The thrill of creeping up to animals to “Shoot” them with your camera is a great experience. In the afternoon, enjoy a boat Safari where you will explore the different channels and lakes of the Rufiji River System, surrounded by hippos and crocodiles. A large variety of herons, storks, ducks, stilts, and other water birds may be seen. And you also see land mammals, such as giraffe and elephants

Although Ruaha is one of the largest parks in Africa, it is comparatively unknown and due to its remoteness, remains unspoiled. Lunch at the lodge followed by an afternoon game drive. Ruaha River Lodge is the only lodge in the reserve and is built on a rocky ridge with spectacular views of the Great Ruaha River.
